Children's Progressive involvement in Celebrations of the Word

EYFS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lay out the focal area and clear it away • Suggest ideas to teacher's questions • Listen to scripture • Join in songs and prayers • Participate in short periods of silence
Years 1 & 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lay out the focal area, selecting items and explaining why • Suggest own prayers • Listen to and read scripture • Select songs and prayers • Increasing comfort with periods of silence
Year 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • With significant adult support, contribute to the planning of class Celebrations of the Word (We gather, We listen, We respond, We go forth) • In pairs, lead elements of worship including reading scripture • Select songs and prayer • Spend time in silence
Year 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • With less adult support, plan class Celebration of the Word (We gather, We listen, We respond, We go forth) • In pairs, lead worship from the joint plan with regular adult support and intervention • Select songs and prayer • Spend time in silence
Years 5 & 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • With very limited adult support, plan class Celebration of the Word, being increasingly creative (We gather, We listen, We respond, We go forth) • In pairs, lead worship from their plan • Select and lead songs and prayer from a variety of sources • Prayers are increasingly detailed in what they are asking for, the reasons why and what they want the outcome to be • Spend increasing amounts of time in silence.
